

Mackintosh at the Willow – Formal Learning Offers Overview - 2024/5

We offer learning visits on Mondays and Wednesdays. All learning visits begin at 10.30am. Please aim to arrive at 10.20am to allow time to drop bags and use toilets. In some circumstances we can offer afternoon sessions, but this may restrict the availability of some tea rooms.

Learning Level	Workshop Title and overview	Timing	CfE Codes and suitability	Cost
Early level (Nursery & P1)	Silver Service Pupils will learn some simple, hands-on silver service techniques, hear the story of the Willow pattern, and design their own plate to take home.	75 minutes (45 mins workshop + 30 mins in tea saloon)	LIT 0-04a EXA 0-02a HWB 0-20a	Schools in SIMD 1-3 postcodes: Free Entry Schools in SIMD 4-6 postcodes: £3 per pupil Schools in SIMD 7-10 postcodes: £4.50 per pupil Independent/Fee Paying Schools: £6 per pupil
First level (P2-P4)	Journey of Tea Pupils will learn about the geography of the tea trade and the history of tea rooms in Scotland. This session will also uncover the story of the Willow pattern and pupils will design their own plate to take home.	120 minutes (90 mins workshop + 30 mins in tea saloon)	EXA 1-05a HWB 1-35a SOC 1-22a	Schools in SIMD 1-3 postcodes: Free Entry Schools in SIMD 4-6 postcodes: £3 per pupil Schools in SIMD 7-10 postcodes: £4.50 per pupil Independent/Fee Paying Schools: £6 per pupil
First level (P2-P4)	Victorians or Edwardians? By comparing and contrasting the Victorian and Edwardian eras, your class will learn about two of Glasgow's famous characters that traverse both periods – Charles Rennie Mackintosh and Kate Cranston. Pupils will also make their own Edwardian toy to take home.	120 minutes (90 mins workshop + 30 mins in tea saloon)	SOC 1-04a TCH 1-12a EXA 1-07a	Schools in SIMD 1-3 postcodes: Free Entry Schools in SIMD 4-6 postcodes: £3 per pupil Schools in SIMD 7-10 postcodes: £4.50 per pupil Independent/Fee Paying Schools: £6 per pupil
Second level (P5-P7)	My Mackintosh Portfolio	150 minutes (90 mins	MTH 2-19a TCH 2-11a	Schools in SIMD 1-3 postcodes: Free Entry Schools in SIMD 4-6 postcodes: £3 per pupil

	Pupils will examine Mackintosh architecture first-hand and build their own portfolio of Mackintosh patterns and shapes, before learning the traditional technique of stencilling and visiting our on-site exhibition.	workshop + 30 mins in tea saloon + 30 mins in on-site exhibition)	EXA 2-06a	Schools in SIMD 7-10 postcodes: £4.50 per pupil Independent/Fee Paying Schools: £6 per pupil
Third/Fourth level and Senior phase (S1-S6)	Mackintosh Tea Room Design Pupils will experience a full building tour with access to Mackintosh-designed spaces not always seen by the public. They will learn about Charles Rennie Mackintosh's work in the context of Edwardian Glasgow and his patron Kate Cranston, before learning the traditional technique of stencilling. The session also offers the chance to undertake further independent learning in our on-site exhibition about tea rooms and their design.	150 minutes (90 mins workshop + 30 mins in tea saloon + 30 mins in on-site exhibition)	EXA 3-03a EXA 3-07a SOC 3-06a  Suitable for Senior Curriculum: National Qualifications & Higher/Advanced Higher in Art and Design, Creative Arts	Schools in SIMD 1-3 postcodes: Free Entry Schools in SIMD 4-6 postcodes: £3 per pupil Schools in SIMD 7-10 postcodes: £4.50 per pupil Independent/Fee Paying Schools: £6 per pupil
Third/fourth level and Senior phase (S1-S6)	Design Your Own Afternoon Tea Pupils will undertake career-focused learning by comparing and contrasting hospitality businesses in 1903 and present day. They will analyse the architecture of the premises and the social impact of the hospitality industry, while also uncovering the differences between a variety of speciality	100 minutes (60 mins workshop + 40 mins designing afternoon tea and supplementary talk)	SOC 3-02a SOC 3-20a TCH 3-04c  Suitable for Senior Curriculum: National Qualifications & Higher/Advanced Higher in	£10 per pupil (+ £2 per pupil supplementary charge to include short talk from one of our pastry team)

	teas. This workshop concludes with each pupil sampling a speciality tea of their choosing and our luxury afternoon tea cakes – before designing their very own afternoon tea. This session can also be supplemented with a talk from one of our pastry chefs.		Business Studies, Hospitality
College &amp; University	Mackintosh Tea Room Design Students will experience a full building tour with access to Mackintosh-designed spaces not always seen by the public. They will learn about Charles Rennie Mackintosh’s work in the context of Edwardian Glasgow and his patron Kate Cranston, before learning the traditional technique of stencilling. The session also offers the chance to undertake further independent learning in our on-site exhibition about tea rooms and their design.	150 minutes (90 mins workshop + 30 mins in tea saloon + 30 mins in on-site exhibition)	Suitable for courses in Art &amp; Design, Technology, Social studies	All colleges and universities: £5 per student
College &amp; University	Design Your Own Afternoon Tea Students will undertake career-focused learning by comparing and contrasting hospitality businesses in 1903 and present day. They will analyse the architecture of the premises and the social impact of the hospitality industry, while also	100 minutes (60 mins workshop + 40 mins designing afternoon tea and supplementary talk)	Suitable for courses in Art &amp; Design, Technology, Social studies, Business, Hospitality.	£10 per student (+ £2 per student supplementary charge to include short talk from one of our pastry team)

	uncovering the differences between a variety of speciality teas. This workshop concludes with each students sampling a speciality tea of their choosing and our luxury afternoon tea cakes – before designing their very own afternoon tea. This session can also be supplemented with a talk from one of our pastry chefs.
ASN/ASL	Silver Service Pupils will learn some simple, hands-on silver service techniques, hear the story of the Willow pattern, and design their own plate to take home.	90 minutes (60 mins workshop + 30 mins in tea saloon)	Supports: Communication, Making Connections (cognitive), Self and Emotions, Functional Movement	Schools in SIMD 1-3 postcodes: Free Entry Schools in SIMD 4-6 postcodes: £3 per pupil Schools in SIMD 7-10 postcodes: £4.50 per pupil Independent/Fee Paying Schools: £6 per pupil
ASN/ASL	My Mackintosh Portfolio Pupils will examine Mackintosh architecture first-hand and build their own portfolio of Mackintosh patterns and shapes, before learning the traditional technique of stencilling and visiting our on-site exhibition.	150 minutes (90 mins workshop + 30 mins in tea saloon + 30 mins in on-site exhibition)	Supports: Communication, Making Connections (cognitive), Self and Emotions, Functional Movement	Schools in SIMD 1-3 postcodes: Free Entry Schools in SIMD 4-6 postcodes: £3 per pupil Schools in SIMD 7-10 postcodes: £4.50 per pupil Independent/Fee Paying Schools: £6 per pupil